

Friends Honor Mr. and Mrs. John Fess at 25th Wedding Anniversary Functions

THIS charming summer costume, appearing in the June issue of Good Housekeeping Magazine, seems to embody the spirit of sweet sixteen. It is made of dotted crepe, perennial favorite among socials, and the collar and cuffs are edged with Val lace. The dotted Swiss parasol matches the dress.

Residents Here for 22 Years Receive Many Lovely Gifts

Eighty friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Fess of 1729 Arlington avenue, attended the party given in the American Legion hall Saturday evening to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. The Fesses were married in El Monte, Mrs. Fess being Miss Persia K. Shugg.

Many of the friends attending the celebration Saturday evening and hearing them renew the sacred vows as read by Rev. B. H. Lingenfelter have known the couple through their married life.

Mrs. Lorene Ulrich, accompanied by Mrs. Juliette Johnson, presented a musical program after which dancing furnished diversion.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Fess was their son Kenneth, Mmes. Hazel Fossum, Mary Lewis, Bettina Miller, Maude Kendrick, Lillian Shriner and Miss Marjorie Page.

Open House Sunday
Mr. and Mrs. Fess have resided in this city for the past 22 years and have taken active part in all civic affairs. Fess is past master of the Masonic Order, while Mrs. Fess is past worthy matron of Torrance chapter Order of Eastern Star and served as a grand officer in 1928. Fess is employed in the city park department.

The couple have two sons, Kenneth, who is taking an engineering course at University of California at Berkeley, and John, who recently enlisted in the United States Navy.

Open house was held at the Fess home Sunday, when more than 50 callers were received. Among the lovely gifts presented to the celebrants was a wedding bell containing 50 silver dollars.

SMITH-BANKS WEDDING IN HOLLYWOOD SATURDAY
The marriage of Helen Tressa Banks, second daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Harry G. Banks of the First Methodist church and Mel P. Banks Jr. of Bakersfield, was solemnized Saturday evening, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Tressa Barden Baddeley in Hollywood.

Garden shrubbery and flowers formed an attractive background for the wedding ceremony, which was read by the bride's father in the presence of 100.

Miss Banks was lovely in gown of white moire with full length veil caught with halo of pearls. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and lily-of-the-valley. Mrs. Barney Foote, matron of honor, Mrs. Lawrence Daniel, maid of honor; and Barbara Little, bridesmaid all classmates of the bride at Whittier college in the class of '36 were her attendants.

Jack Hayes of Bakersfield served as best man for the groom. Ushers were Rex Anderson of Bakersfield and Harry G. Banks Jr. of this city. After a northern honeymoon the couple will reside in Bakersfield, where the groom is an architect.

GATEWAY COUNCIL PARENT TEACHER TEA
Mrs. Jack Lowry and Mrs. J. O. Bishop shared honors as co-hostesses when they entertained at tea in the Gardena high school Thursday for retiring officers and chairmen of the Gateway Council P.T.A. Retiring officers and chairmen presented Mrs. Lowry with a gift of glassware.

The Herald—3 months, 50 cents.

EVENING finery for the young girl this season is definitely Southern-belle, according to Good Housekeeping Magazine for June. This novelty-cotton piece, with eyelid embroidery edging the collar, has a swirl skirt, heart-shaped neckline and a naive bunch of field flowers.

JEANNE SEARS HEADS "THE SPINSTERS"

The newest club in the city is "The Spinsters" organized Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Mary Peckham, 1518 Post avenue. Jeanne Sears was chosen as president of the group, Dorothy Jensen, first vice president; Jean Smith, second vice president; Jeannette Mikelson, secretary; Mary Peckham, treasurer; Jane Roberts, membership chairman; and Jean Kresse, historian; and press chairman.

Other members are Marion Sears, Joy Fossum, Janey Bishoff, Betty Jane Rous and Pat Carlin. The club meetings will be held at various homes the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month.

MME. BELLINI HOSTESS AT ANNUAL PARTY

Twenty-five members of Torrance Club National Business and Professional Women were pleasantly entertained at the annual party given by Mme. Teala Bellini in her Los Angeles studio, Monday evening.

Katherine Musselwhite, interior decorator, spoke on color and the subconscious effect it has on individuals. Louis Mehan, tenor, sang two numbers "You Grow Sweeter As The Years Roll By" and "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling" Bunola Kay, radio singer, who has endeared herself to members of the Torrance club through a period of years sang a group of request numbers. Mme. Bellini accompanied the singers and played several request numbers.

Dainty refreshments were served by the committee in charge Addie Parks, Cora Ellwood and Frances Clark. A separate table was arranged for those whose birthdays fell during the month of June. Individual cakes and gifts were presented to Dorothy Jensen, Cora Ellwood, Edna Mullin, Mae Leake, Ruby Brown and Maude McNeil.

Regular business meeting for July will be held July 10, at the home of Sabina Abramson.

W. O. T. M. INSTALLATION

The Woman's Lodge of the Torrance Moose is having installation of its officers on Friday night the 23rd, at 8 o'clock. This will be an open meeting and the public is cordially invited to attend.
